Dear Sriranjana,

You are receiving this notification because your resume/CV was submitted to GE Intelligent Platforms for the position of Hardware Engineer (Job Number 1532873) or because you were considered for this position based on your prior resume/CV submittal for another role.

At this time, we have decided not to fill this role, and this position has been cancelled. Thank you for your interest in employment opportunities with GE and for your patience in awaiting a response.

There are still many opportunities at GE – we post positions daily. If you would like to learn about other available positions, please visit GE Careers. To track positions that might interest you, log into GE Careers, click Search Agent Manager and follow the instructions. You will then be notified by email when job openings that meet your search criteria are posted.

We wish you every success in your next career move.

Sincerely,

GE Human Resources
